PREFACE

The World War for justice and liberty has come to a victorious end with the signing of the armistice on the memorable morning of November 11th, 1918. The part our gallant boys played in bringing about that happy result constitutes a chapter in Sayre's history well worth perpetuating. Our boys have taken part in all hard fought battles and in all branches of the service. They have faced war's dangers and have borne its hardships and privations without flinching. They have acquitted themselves heroically and have proven worthy of honor and appreciation.

This book is dedicated to the memory and honor of our fallen heroes and to their living comrades whom Divine Providence has graciously willed to survive the greatest conflict history records, and to whom Gen. John J. Pershing pays tribute in the following words: "Their deeds are immortal and they have earned the eternal gratitude of our country."

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

By Lieut. Col. John D. McCrae

(Written during the second battle of Ypres, April, 1915. The author was killed on duty in Flanders January 28, 1918.)

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly,
Scarce heard amidst the guns below.
We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
 In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe!
To you from falling hands we throw
The torch. Be yours to hold it high!
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
 In Flanders fields.

AMERICA'S ANSWER

By R. W. Lillard.

(Written after the death of Lieut. Col. McCrae, author of "In Flanders Fields," and printed in the New York Evening Post.)

Rest ye in peace, ye Flanders dead.
The fight that ye so bravely led
We've taken up. And we will keep
True faith with you who lie asleep
With each a cross to mark his bed,
And poppies blowing overhead,
Where once his own life blood ran red.
So let your rest be sweet and deep
In Flanders fields.

Fear not that ye have died for naught.
The torch ye threw to us we caught.
Ten million hands will hold it high,
And Freedom's light shall never die!
We've learned the lesson that ye taught
In Flanders fields.

Following names of men became known to the Committee in one way or another as being in service, of whom the Committee's inquiry failed to secure further information, neither were they reported by relatives or friends.

Some of them, perhaps, were not residents of Sayre when they entered the service, which may account for the lack of information secured.

THE SAYRE RED CROSS CANTEEN

And Its Splendid Corps of Faithful Workers.

The ladies of Waverly, Sayre and Athens constituting this corps of workers have won a warm place in the hearts of thousands of our soldier boys, who will ever hold them in grateful remembrance. Theirs was a labor of love unselfishly and patriotically rendered, and constitutes a factor of no small proportions in the victory won.

THEY HAVE DONE THEIR BIT

AND HELPED WIN THE VICTORY

CAPTAIN FISH
Of the Red Cross Canteen.

PLEASE NOTE!

The names and data given in this book have been gathered by volunteer workers gratuitously. In many cases the relatives and friends were unable or failed to supply the information desired, hence the blank spaces.

Every effort has been put forth by the workers to make this list complete and to include the name of every soldier, sailor and nurse from this borough who was in the service, especially those serving overseas. If any have been omitted, it was unintentional and is no fault of the workers; the fault in that case rests with the relatives and friends who failed to make such missing name or names known.

This roll is intended to record the names of those who were in active military or naval service before November 11, 1918, and those who at that time were stationed at cantonments awaiting transportation for active service.

Names of members of the Students' Army Training Corps and others in attendance at institutions of learning on above date, and unassigned men, are not included in this list. They were not exposed to war's dangers, its privations and hardships, neither were they awaiting transportation for active service at that time. They were in course of preparation for the army, and if the war had continued would have gone to cantonments and into active service later, in which case their names would have become eligible to this roll.

Honor to whom honor is due! The boys who risked their lives, fought, suffered and died won the victory, and by their valorous deeds earned honor and glory.

FREE COPIES.

Each soldier, sailor and nurse whose name appears herein is privileged to receive free a copy of this book.

MONUMENT FUND.

Those desiring additional copies, and others, may purchase same at $1.00 per copy, or for as much more per copy as they wish to pay. The money so raised will be deposited with the Borough Treasurer of Sayre as a special fund to be used for the purpose of erecting as soon as possible a suitable monument and bronze tablet as a memorial to the honor of our fallen heroes.
